con · ver · sa · tion

noun: conversation; plural noun: conversations; the informal exchange of ideas by spoken words

– Garland

“There were zero strings attached, there was no pressure.”

– Todd

“Our facilitators did a great job of helping us to understand we are all on a journey and what we said to the group would stay with the group.”

– Dave and Betsy

“When you get people talking about this subject that no one talks about, it’s so powerful.”

– Martha
A Journey of Generosity is an overnight retreat focused on the joy of living generously. It includes stories of generous givers, interactive discussions, reflection opportunities and bible study that enables participants to process the biblical message of generosity. It is story driven and experiential in nature.

“What I really found different about the experience is that no one gave me a solution or prescription—they just allowed me to begin to wrestle with and recognize that this journey I was on was about me drawing closer to God.”

— Brad
I’m already generous, why should I invest the time?

“What I really found different about the experience is that no one gave me a solution or prescription—they just allowed me to begin to wrestle with and recognize that this journey I was on was about me drawing closer to God.”

– Brad

We know you probably have financial advisors, estate advisors, tax advisors and even culture telling you why money is important. But what if they don’t have the full picture? Like how money shapes your heart, your family, your life? How generosity transforms people and connects us to the heart of our generous God? How you’ve never really met an unhappy generous person?

But just as you excel in everything, see that you also excel in the grace of giving.

- 2 Corinthians 8:7
Who should go?
Anyone who has experienced that it is more blessed to give than to receive.
If you’ve been invited to a Journey of Generosity, someone already believes you are generous and knows the joy you’ll find as you further explore this life giving message with friends.

Is there a hidden agenda?
Many people who want to talk to you about money want something from you. Generous Giving is privately funded, so you’ll never be asked for money. Ever.

Here is our agenda. We want to give you the gift of conversation. We want your heart to be captured by Jesus and generosity and to create a place to figure out what that means for your journey. We don’t want something from you, we want something for you.
Consider joining some friends as we journey to the heart of our generous God and experience more of the life that is truly life.

Do good, be rich in good deeds, be generous and willing to share...so you may take hold of life that is truly life.

- 1 Timothy 6:18-19
