

Journey of Generosity

What is a Journey of Generosity (JOG)?

- A spiritual retreat hosted by someone who wants to encourage a conversation about generosity amongst friends.
- Five sessions containing scripture, teachings, video stories, and discussion led by a trained facilitator.
- A chance to talk about generosity without any financial ask.

“ Next to the day of our salvation, the 22-hour experience at the JOG was the single greatest change to our understanding of our relationship with Christ and what it means for the rest of our lives. It has caused us to completely rethink everything about how we were defining success, what we are aiming at, and how we were thinking about things as a family. ”

AUSTIN, JOG PARTICIPANT

Who is Generous Giving?

- Generous Giving explores what it means to live with Jesus-like generosity. We host conversations about God and money in an environment that never asks you for donations or anything in return.
- Founded in 2000 by The Maclellan Foundation, Generous Giving is fully and privately funded. We don't fundraise at our events, nor do we allow others to do so.

Is a Journey of Generosity worth my time?

1

Money is connected to every part of our lives. We've found that refocusing our beliefs about money can bring clarity and vision to every part of our lives.

2

Since honest discussions about our wealth are rare, these times together become a highlight for many men, women, and couples.

3

God shapes our hearts during these spiritual retreats, changing the way we live in ways that bring more joy and abundance.

Learn more at generousgiving.org/jog