

An Evening of Generosity with Your Family

📖 Read Aloud Before Dinner

Welcome to an Evening of Generosity. This experience is designed to open our hearts to something new. I thought it would help us get to know one another and ponder possibilities together. It is my prayer that this conversation will be relaxing and inspiring as we all grow closer to the heart of God. We will watch a couple videos and engage in meaningful conversation. Let's get started!

▶ Watch Story

Jimmy and Laura Seibert (5:45)

- What stood out to you about the story?
- How would you have defined generosity when you were younger? Has your definition changed?
- Have you ever encountered generosity? Tell us about it.
- Are there things in the world you would like to try to make better?
- What causes, hurts, or injustices are most important to you?

▶ Watch Story After Dinner
