

JOG Invitations by Month

CREATIVE WAYS TO BRING PEOPLE INTO THE EXPERIENCE

January

MOST COMMON MONTH TO PLAN FOR A JOG

- Start the year with meaningful conversation—gather friends for a time of connection and reflection.
- Looking to escape the winter blues? A cozy weekend in the mountains, by the lake, or near the beach can become something truly memorable.
- Bless your church staff with an intentional day to grow together and be refreshed.

February

- With President's Day offering a long weekend, consider gathering friends for something a little deeper.
- Cold weather calls for warm community—create space indoors for heartfelt conversations.
- Around Valentine's Day, invite couples into a shared experience that can spark unity and vision.

March

MOST POPULAR MONTH TO HOST A JOG

- Love basketball? Try pairing March Madness with meaningful moments—you might be surprised how well they go together.
- Make time during Spring Break for intentional conversation around what matters most.
- Host a JOG for women on International Women's Day.
