

JOG Invitations by Month

CREATIVE WAYS TO BRING PEOPLE INTO THE EXPERIENCE

April

MOST POPULAR MONTH IN THE SECOND QUARTER TO HOST A JOG

- Let Easter be a launching pad—consider hosting something that encourages spiritual momentum.
- Reach out to your church and invite newcomers into deeper connection through a shared experience.
- For the outdoorsy types: why not pair a hike, a hunt, or some fishing with time for the heart and soul?

May

- Memorial Day weekend offers a beautiful mix of rest and purpose. Start it off with something that feeds the soul.
- Life is hectic for families in May—gather those who are in a different season and create space to reflect.
- After the bustle of spring fundraising events, this is a natural time to pause and reset your giving perspective.

June

- Summer is about intention—help your friends make room for reflection before vacations sweep them away.
- Planning a getaway? Invite others into a weekend that combines rest, beauty, and meaningful conversation.
- The slower pace of summer makes room for deeper connection—why not offer it?