

JOG Invitations by Month

CREATIVE WAYS TO BRING PEOPLE INTO THE EXPERIENCE

October

- Before the holiday whirlwind, offer friends a chance to pause and be renewed
- Want to get creative? Try a themed gathering that brings joy and depth together.
- Partner with local ministries or community groups to serve others through shared generosity.

November

MOST POPULAR MONTH IN THE FOURTH QUARTER TO HOST A JOG

- In the spirit of gratitude, create space to reflect on the goodness of God and the joy of giving.
- Hosting friends or family this month? Add a meaningful twist that opens up beautiful conversation.
- A well-timed gathering could be just the nudge someone needs to see giving in a whole new way. As groups begin winding down for the year, why not end on a high note?

December

- If your family is already together, take time for something that could become a cherished tradition.
- Spending time with close friends over the holidays? Weave in a few moments that matter.
- Rethink the Christmas party—what if this year's gift was a deeper connection and a lasting perspective?
